KHALIL YAAKOB ENTERTAINS CROWD AT K3P CONVENTION

JITRA, July 21 (Bernama) -- The presence of popular artistes Siti Nurhaliza and the Raihan Group did not deter Information Minister Tan Sri Khalil Yaakob from demonstrating his singing talent at the K3P National Convention, here today.

Khalil received loud applause from the audience when he sang a song, "Seruling Anak Gembala" as soon as Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad concluded his speech at the "Leaders With The People" gathering in conjunction with the convention.

He sang the song with great gusto to suit the rhythm to the extent that Dr Mahathir and other government leaders present were astounded at his singing prowess.

Earlier, artistes Siti Nurhaliza, Raihan and Roy who were specially invited for the function, entertained the crowd with their renditions.

Meanwhile, Dr Mahathir earlier presented a challenge trophy and a cash prize of RM10,000 to the K3P Group from Kampung Permatang Duku, Benut from Johor who won the best K3P Award at the national level.
