

16/09/2002

Let people see for themselves

Nadura Kamarulzaman

I READ with interest the report "Live telecast will not help Opposition", (NST Sept 11). I seriously think the Government should do it, to let the Opposition leaders show their true colours.

A telecast can show the public whether their behaviour is appropriate.

From what I can see happening in Terengganu and Kelantan, these MPs are just busy holding ceramah after ceramah in order to sow hatred against the Federal Government and Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

The Opposition only knows how to condemn and oppose the Federal Government's projects. They do not offer any constructive alternatives to the projects.

Oddly enough, they are the first to make use of the facilities when they