LICT CONTRIBUTES OVER 5,000 COPIES OF TWO BOOKS TO LIBRARIES

KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 20 (Bernama) -- The Limkokwing Institute of Creative Technology (LICT) presented more than 5,000 copies of two books, "Wings of Creativity" and "Inspiring Moments", published by the institute to the National Library today.

The books were presented by LICT board chairman Tan Sri Dr Awang Had Salleh to the Director-General of the National Library, Datuk Zawiyah Baba, at the National Library here.

Fourteen copies of the book "Wings of Creativity" by the college's founder, Tan Sri Lim Kok Wing, which depicts 20 years of Malaysia's development under Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad, will be distributed to the state libraries.

The other 5,222 copies of "Inspiring Moments", which documents the experiences of the college's mass communications class of 2001 will be distributed to 1,213 public libraries and the ministries and government departments.
