MCA peace plan ignored

T.Y. Wong

I REFER to the article "MCA in the balance" (NST, Sept 2).

According to media reports, a peace plan was put forward to resolve differences in the MCA by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

With this peace plan signed, MCA had a smooth election. All incumbents were re-elected, mostly by default, for another full term.

The MCA president now appoints his own nominees and said this is his power and prerogative, a "democratic progress".

Is not the spirit of the peace agreement of paramount importance? Why
