Outrage against illegals' alleged mistreatment

A.H.S.

ANY person would be outraged against the mistreatment of others, in this case Filipino illegal immigrants in Sabah detention centres.

Malaysian authorities should get to the bottom of this situation, and take stringent action against the culprits if the accusation proves to be true. However, my outrage extends further.

It includes all those who have responsibility over the fate of Filipinos.

How dare those who have been chosen by Filipinos, from the President of the Philippines to their elected congressional representatives, pretend to be outraged and demand we give Filipino illegals five-star treatment?

They have been fighting among themselves instead of trying to provide jobs for their people.

Meanwhile, the Philippine media have nothing better to do than to stir up emotions against a country that has provided for their people.

If the Philippines is a responsible nation, it would not allow its people to cause problems for Malaysia. Malaysia has been kind to its neighbours.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad has bent over backwards to accommodate Filipino President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo. However, what do we get in return? Abuse.

I think Malaysia should send all Filipino illegals home as quickly as possible. Let them protest, let them burn flags, let them write nonsense in their newspapers, because these actions reflect badly on them as a
