

Putin to address trade forum here

PETALING JAYA: Russian President Valdimir Putin will also address a Malaysia-Russia Business Forum, among others, during his visit to Malaysia next week.

The forum, to be held on July 8, is jointly organised by the Asian Strategy & Leadership Institute' (Asli) and the Malaysia-Russia Business Council.

Apart from addressing the forum, Putin is also expected to have a dialogue session with participants and witness the exchange of agreements between several companies from both the countries.

"The Malaysia-Russia Business Forum was built on the successful visit to Moscow last year by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad," said Malaysia-Russia Business Council executive director and Asli CEO Datuk Dr Michael Yeoh.
