

Mahathir thanks Indian Muslims for their support

TAR 13 JUN 2005

KUALA LUMPUR: The Indian Muslim community's contribution and support that ensured victory for the Barisan Nasional in the last general election is much appreciated, former Prime Minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad said.

He said that although they were a minority community in the country, he felt grateful to them.

"Their number is not high but in a democracy, even with one vote, one can win," he said at a dinner organised by the Johor Malabar Muslim Assembly here yesterday.

The dinner themed Jasa Mu Dikenang (Your Deeds Are Remembered), was held in honour of Dr Mahathir for his big role in the country's development.

Also present was his wife Tun Dr Siti Hasmah Mohd Ali.
