Nominations open for award

KUALA LUMPUR, Mon. - Nominations are open for the Dr Siti Hasmah Award 2004 for individuals or organisations that have contributed towards the fight against HIV/AIDS.

Tun Dr Siti Hasmah Mohd Ali will present the award at the Malaysian AIDS Foundation's "Red Ribbon Gala" on Sept 18 here. The deadline for nominations is June 30.

"This award is MAF's way of thanking people for their work for HIV/AIDS in Malaysia," said foundation chairman Datuk Paduka Marina Mahathir.

Among the judges are 2002 winner Michael Chow, United Nations Development Programme resident co-ordinator Dr Richard Leete and Pink Triangle Foundation chairman Hisham Hussein. The Carat Club of Kuala Lumpur will sponsor this year's award.

Entry forms can be downloaded from www.malaysianaidsfoundation.org.my, or call Azita Azlan at 03-40451033.
