Dr M to receive Fiabci award

KUALA LUMPUR, Tues. - The Malaysian chapter of the International Real Estate Federation (Fiabci) will present a special award to Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad for his contribution towards nation-building.

Yang di-Pertuan Agong Tuanku Syed Sirajuddin Jamalullail is scheduled to present the award to the former Prime Minister during its 12th Annual Awards of Distinction at Shangri-La Hotel this Friday.

"The award represents the real estate industry's recognition of the immense contributions to infrastructure and real estate when he helmed the nation for 22 years," Fiabci said in a statement.

Fiabci will also present its "Property Man of the Year" award to a developer who has made significant contributions to the industry. Eight other awards are for outstanding contributions to the real estate industry. They are for the best hotel, resort, office, residential development, master planning and special projects.
