Najib to deliver keynote address at Asli seminar

DEPUTY Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak will deliver the keynote address on "Malaysia after Tun Dr Mahathir: Challenges and Responses" at the Malaysia Strategic Outlook 2004 conference next week.

The conference, organised by the Asian Strategy and Leadership Institute (Asli), will be held at the Renaissance Hotel, Kuala Lumpur.

The conference will address, among others, economic strength and resilience as well as surviving economically with the emerging of two giant economies - China and India.

It will also discuss the challenges faced by corporate Malaysians in key sectors and industries, domestic political scenarios post-Mahathir, Malaysia's foreign policy under Prime Minister Datuk Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi and the future of Asean (Association of South-East Asian Nations) economic integration.

Over 150 participants are expected to attend the conference, including government and corporate policymakers, chief executives and senior management executives, business strategists, investment advisers, researchers and academics.
