Electrical goods, cash await GP Joran fishing contest winners

KUALA LUMPUR, Thurs. - Participants of the GP Joran 2003/04 fishing competition's fifth leg in Teluk Batik, Perak, today and on Sunday stand a chance of winning electrical goods worth RM4,000, courtesy of Cryptonics Media Communications Sdn Bhd.

Some of the prizes were presented by Cryptonics managing director Reza Ismail Rautin to Berita Minggu executive editor (special projects) Hafifi Hafidz here yesterday. Also present was Cryptonics adviser, Mahathir Abdul Aziz.

Reza said this was the first time the company was sponsoring the contest and hoped to support future events as well.

"We hope that our prizes will motivate more people to take part in this prestigious event," he said.

Cryptonics is a communications company specialising in providing short-messaging service (SMS) under the brand Mobil Gee. The company is also responsible for the SMS voting for the Anugerah Bintang Popular Berita Harian 2003.

The GP Joran, organised by Berita Harian, offers a total of RM28,200 in cash prizes. The winner of the deep sea category will take home RM8,000 and for the beach category RM6,000.

Registration for the deep sea category has closed while those interested in the beach category can do so till Sunday. For further information call the Joran unit at 03-22822323 (ext 4471).
