

31/10/2003

A fresh angle every time from Dr M

Datuk Khalid Mohd

Editor-in-chief, Utusan Malaysia

AS a young reporter, I was simply takut to approach him but over time, I discover He will talk and he will always offer a fresh angle, a different dimension to It's as if he knows what is on the reporter's mind or what is needed to give a In my early days, I used to ambush him a lot, especially in Parliament. I would Until today, his opening remarks at a Press conference or when he knows you are One of his most admirable traits is his willingness - even as head of government After he grew accustomed to my presence, he went through a period where he would Nevertheless, despite the show of familiarity on his part, Dr Mahathir was always I have never felt at ease enough to even crack a joke in his presence. Even when There were two occasions when he was displeased with what I had written. When I owe my 27 years in journalism to Dr Mahathir. When he was deputy prime minister