

31/10/2003

A rare leader

Hassan Talib

DATUK Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad is a rarity in developing countries where leaders tend to overstay and choose to be removed the ignominious way. Very seldom would a leader vacate his seat of power voluntarily and in good faith.

Dr Mahathir has brought some semblance of dignity and credibility to political leadership in the Third World. Such leaders are born once in a hundred years.

HASSAN TALIB
Gombak