

19/10/2003

Campus notes

piled by Sumitha Martin

A MONASH UNIVERSITY MALAYSIA exchange programme saw communications student Hong Jayeen studying in Sweden for six months.

While studying at Uppsala University, she took the opportunity to tour Finland, Denmark, Russia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, France and Germany.

"It was an eye-opening experience," she says, "and I learned a great deal about the diverse cultures of the world."

"The exchange programme is an excellent platform for students to understand people from different cultures and backgrounds," she adds.

Elsewhere at Monash, 103 students were awarded with full or partial scholarships for their academic excellence.

The campus was also visited by Monash University Australia's new Vice-Chancellor Professor Richard Larkins.

* THE ONE ACADEMY OF COMMUNICATION DESIGN has honoured Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad with an oil painting of the premier, in conjunction with his retirement.

The portrait, which features the Prime Minister against a background of doves, was painted by college graduate Lee Hoon Sun.

* CPA AUSTRALIA'S MALAYSIA division held an inaugural Undergraduate Accounting Conference for final-year accounting students.

Titled Resetting the Mindset to Meet Challenges at the Workplace, the conference was attended by 250 students from 20 institutions of higher learning.

* THE 7th SUNWAY COLLEGE Association of Chartered Certified Accountants-Certified Accounting Technicians graduation ceremony saw 89 ACCA students conferred with degrees and 95 CAT students with diplomas.

A group of 32 students also graduated with applied accounting degrees from the Oxford Brookes University in the United Kingdom.

* FIFTEEN HELP INSTITUTE students each scored 4As in the recent A-levels examinations while another 10 scored 3As respectively.

The college's Matriculation Centre head Jahn Cheah Thean Lye credits the teaching faculty for the excellent results.