

31/10/2003

LimKokWing University students pay tribute to Dr M

PETALING JAYA, Thurs. - The Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad leaves a strong and lasting impression not only with locals but foreigners as well.

Students, including those from overseas at the LimKokWing University College of Creative Technology, paid tribute to Dr Mahathir at the campus today.

Peter Maruapula from Botswana said he saluted Dr Mahathir for his courage in standing up to Westerners.

"If all the other leaders from developing countries are like him, then there will be a louder voice."

The third-year architecture student at the university who met the Prime Minister at the Kuala Lumpur World Peace Conference recently, said countries with leaders like Dr Mahathir would be ideal to live in.

Deborah Bottreau, from France said the Prime Minister had done a good job promoting Malaysia in the international arena and has contributed much to the country's growth.

Seven students read their tributes honouring the leader whom they described as the best Malaysia has ever had.

The university's corporate marketing development manager, Selma Kalota, said the students wanted to join the other six million students throughout the country in paying tribute to Dr Mahathir.