Paper's tribute to Dr M opens amid much fanfare

KUANTAN, Sat. - The Malay Mail's "Tribute to Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad" opened at the Berjaya Mega Mall yesterday amid much fanfare.

Present to open the campaign and also pen their appreciation to Dr Mahathir who will step down on Oct 31, were the Tengku Muda of Pahang Tengku Abdul Rahman and his wife, Cik Puan Muda Pahang Julita Aishah Abdul Latiff.

Tengku Abdul Rahman spent several minutes to pen his thoughts before signing the tribute jointly with Julita Aishah.

Many people who patronised the mall also came forward to the Malay Mail booth to put down their thoughts before going about on their errands.

Also present was Beserah State Assemblyman Datuk Fauzi Abdul Rahman, who joined in to show his appreciation for the Prime Minister.

The "Paper That Cares" programme at the Megal Mall will end on Sunday.

In conjunction with the programme, the paper is offering advertisement rates at 70 per cent reduced rate to enable all Malaysians to participate.
