PM to attend five functions in JB

JOHOR BARU, Thurs. - Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad is scheduled to attend five functions in his one-day working visit here tomorrow.

Dr Mahathir will be accompanied by his wife Datuk Seri Dr Siti Hasmah Mohd Ali.

First on his itinerary will be the ground-breaking ceremony of the Gerbang Selatan Bersepadu project and the public housing project at the site of the new Johor Baru Customs, Immigration and Quarantine Complex in Tanjung Puteri at 9.30am.

He will attend a meet-the-people session after the event.

Dr Mahathir will then proceed to the Sultan Abu Bakar Mosque for Friday prayers before attending a luncheon at Saujana, the official residence of Menteri Besar Datuk Abdul Ghani Othman, at 2pm.

Next on his itinerary will be a briefing on the Danga Bay mixed development project at its site at 3pm.

At 4.30pm, Dr Mahathir will have an audience with the Johor Sultan at Istana Bukit Serene before leaving for Kuala Lumpur from the Sultan Ismail International Airport at 6pm.
