Sue the magazine

By Hassan Talib

THE article in The Economist "The Changing of the Guard - A Survey of Malaysia" smeared the name of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

Some Barisan Nasional leaders want a total ban on the magazine if the writer does not apologise publicly.

Banning The Economist is not a good idea. How can we sit among equals when we are quick to draw the sword instead of settling the issue in a civilised way?

If we have a case, why not sue the magazine? With that money we can build more bridges and roads in the rural areas.
