

27/10/2003

Reaction example of Jews' influence

D. Anzani

I DO not want to go into the merits or otherwise of Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad's speech at the OIC Summit. Suffice to say that he is not anti-Semitic and his reference to the Jews was merely to point out that although small in number they control a vast amount of global wealth and thus are in a position to influence politics.

The influential Simon Wiesenthal Centre's Rabbi Abraham Cooper in a counterattack on Dr Mahathir after he branded Jews "arrogant" and accused them of controlling the world by proxy, has called on investors and tourists to avoid Malaysia.

Isn't Cooper's reaction an example of the influence he thinks the Jews have to practise, as Dr Mahathir put it, economic terrorism?

D. ANZANI

Ampang