

01/11/2003

Special 96-page pullout distributed at McDonald's

PETALING JAYA, Fri. - McDonald's today distributed 30,000 copies of the New Straits Times which came together with an exclusive 96-page pullout of Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad's 22 years as Prime Minister.

A total of 152 McDonald's outlets nationwide participated.

New Straits Times Press senior general manager (circulation) Wee Teck Kee said each outlet received 200 copies.

Customers in one outlet at Uptown 5, Damansara Utama smiled when they managed to get a copy.

Soh Wei Ling, 26, congratulated NST for producing a special pullout on Dr Mahathir.

"For me, this is just another way of saying thank you to our beloved Prime Minister. He is a true Malaysian," she said.

Another customer, 30-year old Tey Hong Leng said NST again had outdone itself by producing such an interesting pullout.

"For me, this is what you call creativity," he said.

Dechen Low, 35, said the pullout was an apt tribute to Dr Mahathir.

"The pullout is very interesting as well as informative," he said.

McDonald's Malaysia corporate communications senior manager Robitahanim Zainal said she was very happy to see people coming to the outlet to get copies.

"I am happy that we are collaborating with NST to distribute the copies.

"McDonald's Malaysia has benefited a lot from Dr Mahathir.

"Because of him, Malaysia is a prosperous and a peaceful country," she said.