Top scholars to take part in conference

IS THIS MINE?: The Prime Minister's Religious Adviser Tan Sri Dr Abdul Hamid Othman (left) looking at the Press and delegates' passes to the World Conference of Islamic Scholars to be held at the Putrajaya Marriot Hotel for three days beginning tomorrow.

About 700 people, including 85 leading Muslim scholars, will participate in the conference which will be opened by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad.

With Abdul Hamid (from left) are officers from the Prime Minister's Department Naiamah Arifin, Intan Hana Shireen, Norhasliza Zakaria, Zahiriah Haniff and the conference's implementation committee chairman Datuk Nakhaie Ahmad.
