Two NST employees receive Kedah awards

ALOR STAR, Sun. - Two New Straits Times employees who were bestowed awards in conjunction with the Sultan of Kedah's 75th birthday received their awards today.

Assistant news editor Farush Khan Akbar Khan and photo business development co-ordinator Mohd Anuar Hashim received the Bintang Kebaktian Masyarakat (BKM).

Another BKM recipient was Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Syed Razak Syed Zain's Press secretary Sobri Sudin.

The ceremony at Istana Anak Bukit, where 135 received their awards, was one of a series of sessions held until March. The first session which saw Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad receiving the Darjah Kerabat (DK) was held on Jan 19. There are 1,121 recipients for various awards this year.
