

PM and wife made Bankers Club members

ISI 3 SEP 1987
PRIME Minister Datuk Seri Dr Mahathir Mohamad and his wife Datuk Seri Datin Paduka Dr Siti Hasmah Mohamed All were made honorary members of the Bankers Club after its opening in Kuala Lumpur last night.

They were presented with the honorary members' cards which entitle them to free use of the facilities at the club at the Amoda Penthouse at Jalan Imbi.

Club honorary chairman, Tun Mohamed Suffian Hashim, presented them with the cards after the Prime Minister opened the club.

The Bankers Club in Kuala Lumpur is part of the International Associate Clubs network and is dedicated to providing members with superior facilities and personal services to satisfy their business and social entertainment requirements.

More than 800 guests were present including Finance Minister Daim Zainuddin and Trade and Industry Minister Datin Paduka Rafidah Aziz. — Bernama
