

you are one of the chief architects of our two countries' close, warm and cordial relations, You have contributed a great deal towards greater understanding of the problems faced by our two countries. In particular, you are one of those who are instrumental in ensuring the smooth working of the General and Regional Border Committees. The Government and people of Malaysia are proud to know that in you they have a friend of long standing and in whom they have the utmost trust and confidence. We are proud to honour you to-night
