

as the Prime Minister of a great country and a very close neighbour of Malaysia.

3. My Cabinet colleagues and I have been looking forward to your visit. There are many important and vital matters of bilateral and regional interests which should be discussed and which we did discuss this morning. I greatly value your straightforwardness and sincerity. These I have known before you became Prime Minister.

that of the "Siamese Twins". If the close

..4/-