

determined to destroy and impose upon us an alien ideology. Our two countries have cooperated very well in fighting our common enemy. I have no doubt that under your wise leadership this cooperation will be further enhanced.

6. Both of us fully realise that military and police actions alone do not provide the ultimate solution. We have to show to our peoples by results that our systems and ways of life are far superior and