

views on a number of matters of common interest and concern to both our countries.

We found the meeting most interesting and useful. I hope that there will be more such meeting in the future. The meeting this morning was especially useful in view of the fact that you had just visited Jakarta and Manila and had talks with President Suharto and President Marcos.

9. Mr. Prime Minister, we Malaysians know very well about Thai's kindness and hospitality. Although we cannot hope to
