

Ministries and government agencies. This approach is adopted, for example, for the Applied Nutrition Programme, which is coordinated by the Economic Planning Unit in my Department.

I hope that the Applied Nutrition Programme will expand rapidly to cover the entire country, including Sabah and Sarawak.

In this respect, I would like to urge the Ministry of Health and other departments involved, to work closely together in this programme and other similar programmes, so as to avoid any unnecessary delay.