

Mr. Chairman,

President of the Bar Council, Malaya

My Lord President.

Honourable Judges,

Distinguished Guests,

Ladies and Gentlemen.

1. It is nine years since I stopped practising law to join the Government. Law has always been my interest, even now. It is a useful qualification to have. It is especially so, when one is in the government where one does quite a lot of legislation work.