

security of the nation, for which these people had made sacrifices. The price for doing away with the Internal Security Act is the destruction of our democratic system and our way of life. As I have said, our constitution provides against infringement of fundamental liberties. The Rukunegara upholds the rule of law. These are not empty words. They are scrupulously