

P. RAMLEE
The Bright Star

JAMES HARDING, until his retirement, was Senior Lecturer in French at the University of Greenwich. Dr Harding is an authority on the music, theatre and literature of France. The subjects of his books have ranged from classical composers like Saint-Saens, Massenet, Gounod and Offenbach to the avant-garde Erik Satie, the popular performer Maurice Chevalier, and the rock musical The Rocky Horror Show. He has written twenty-one books in all, including a history of French operetta and studies of Jacques Tati, the film director, and of the actor-dramatist Sacha Guitry. He visits Malaysia regularly. A chance viewing of Nujum Pa' Belalang alerted him to P. Ramlee and led to a very fruitful collaboration with Tan Sri Ahmad Sarji which has been a labour of love for them both.

AHMAD SARJI was the Chief Secretary to the Government of Malaysia from 1990 to 1996. Among his published works are The Chief Secretary to the Government, Malaysia (1996) and P. Ramlee: Erti Yang Sakti (1999). In collaboration with Johari Salleh, he had compiled P. Ramlee songs in three volumes, containing lyrics and musical notes. He is now President of the Badan Warisan Malaysia (Malaysian Heritage Trust).
