INSTITUTE OF SOUTHEAST ASIAN STUDIES
CLUNY ROAD, SINGAPORE, 10.

The Institute of Southeast Asian Studies was established as an autonomous corporation in May 1968. It is a regional research centre for scholars and other specialists concerned with modern Southeast Asia. The Institute's research interest is focused on the many-faceted problems of Development and Modernization, and Political and Social Change in Southeast Asia.

The Institute is governed by a twenty-four-member Board of Trustees on which are represented the University of Singapore and Nanyang University, appointees from the government, as well as representatives from a broad range of professional and civic organizations and groups. A ten-man Executive Committee oversees day-to-day operations; it is ex-officio chaired by the Director, the Institute's chief academic and administrative officer.

The opinions expressed in this publication are the responsibility of the author and not of the Institute.
