ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I wish to express my gratitude to Professor Richard Butwell, under whom this thesis began, and to Professor Phillip Monypenny, who directed most of the actual writing and provided suggestions for its improvement. I am grateful also to the other members of my graduate committee, and to my other teachers at the University of Illinois for their instruction, counsel, and intellectual stimulation. Sincere thanks are also expressed to the members and staff of the Malaysian-American Fulbright Commission, who made my research visit to Malaysia more pleasant and effective. Special thanks are extended to my Fulbright advisor, Professor Wang Gungwu, Chairman of the Department of History, University of Malaya.
