Preface

This study was completed in early 1970; only the last chapter on elections in East Malaysia was added later. It is a result of the several visits that I have made to Malaysia since 1963 and the insights I have gained through close contacts with the political leadership in the country at different levels. I am grateful to the Research Committee of the University Grants Committee of New Zealand which made it possible for me to spend four months in Malaysia in 1968-69 just before the general elections. In Malaysia, I am indebted to a large number of people without whose help and generosity this work would not have been possible. I owe a special debt of gratitude to Dr. Tan Chee Khoon, Dr. Lim Chong Eu and V. Veerappen of the Gerakan Rakyat Malaysia; S.P. Seenivasagam of the People's Progressive Party, and C.V. Devan Nair, Lim Kit Siang and Goh Hock Guan of the Democratic Action Party. Here in New Zealand my thanks are due to Alex McLeod and Dr. Garry Hawke who kindly read the manuscript and made many useful comments.
