HIGH COMMISSION OF MALAYSIA'S FAMILY DAY

27 February 2016

The High Commission of Malaysia organized a "Family Day" on 27 February 2016, which was held at the multi-purpose hall and the field of the High Commission complex. The event was officiated by the High Commissioner of Malaysia to India, H.E. Datuk Naimun Ashakli Mohammad.

The event saw the participation of 17 Home-Based Staff (HBS) and their families in a variety of fun-filled activities, which began with the singing of Malaysia's national anthem "Negaraku", followed by the "pocho-pocho" and "joget" warm-up dance.

Other activities that took place includes futsal, "sukan rakyat" relay races, and was culminated with the musical chair.

The Family Day was conducted in the spirit of forging closer ties and camaraderie among the HBS of the High Commission.

"Despite coming from different Ministries and Agencies, we are one big family here at the High Commission, and we all aspire to achieve the same thing; to fly the Malaysian flag high."
