Establishment of the Consulate General of Malaysia

Malaysia opened its Consulate Office in Shanghai in December 1999 and it was first located at Equatorial Hotel, Yan'an Xi Lu. In July 2001, the Consulate Office moved to CITIC Square, No. 1168 Nanjing Xi Lu until September 2008. At present, Consulate Office is located at Unit 01, Block B, 9th Floor, Dawning Center, No. 500 Hongbaoshi Lu, Changning District, Shanghai 201103.

The Consulate General of Malaysia in Shanghai covers the Yangtze Delta - the largest economic region in China, consisting of Shanghai, the largest city in China and the provinces of Anhui, Jiangsu and Zhejiang. The Yangtze Delta is one of the most populous places in the world and Shanghai is paving the way to help this region's economic prosperity.

The first Consul General to Shanghai was YBhg. Dato' Rosli Ismail who served from December 1999 to 24 January 2004. He was succeeded by Jamal Hassan who served from April 2005 to July 2007. From August 2007 until June 2010, Dato' Zamil Mohd Zabidi served as the third Consul General. Consul General Hendy Assan took over starting 1 July 2010 until 21 March 2014. Consul General Tan Yang Thai started his term on 29 March 2014 until now.
