On behalf of the Embassy of Malaysia in the State of Kuwait, I am extremely saddened to hear of the passing of His Highness Almarhum Sheikh Sabah Al Ahmad Al Jaber Al Sabah, Amir of the State of Kuwait. An inspiring mediator who contributed to making Kuwait a state of moderation and a major diplomatic actor committed to peaceful resolutions of conflicts. His Highness Almarhum was a political icon internationally and unique humanitarian leader.

As vital to the diplomatic rift between Qatar and other Gulf countries and the plight of the Palestinian people, Almarhum's rational problem-solving methods came from a place of great love for humanity. His efforts and character was acknowledged and appreciated by all, and not least by the United Nations who bestowed him with a Humanitarian Leadership award in 2014.

The Kuwaitis and people around the globe shared their condolences on the passing of Almarhum and we would like to join them in expressing our sympathy to the people of Kuwait and the family of His Highness Almarhum Sheikh Sabah Al Ahmad Al Jaber Al Sabah. "We surely belong to Allah and to Him we shall return".

On the same note, the Embassy of Malaysia in the State of Kuwait would also like to express our sincere felicitations to His Highness Sheikh Nawaf Al Ahmad Al Jaber Al Sabah, the 16th Amir of the State of Kuwait on taking the helm of power on 30 September 2020. We wish the best of success to His Highness towards achieving further progress and prosperity for all Kuwaitis. We hope that under the leadership of His Highness Sheikh Nawaf, the existing partnership and cooperation between Malaysia and the State of Kuwait will continue to flourish and enhance for the benefit of the two peoples.
