Chinese New Year Carnival

20 January 2017 - 22 January 2017

Chinese New Year falls on 29 January 2017. It is a time for celebration and merrymaking. Family reunion feasts and open houses are a common feature in Malaysia, while children would receive 'ang pows' or little red money packets from the elders. Don't miss the exciting lion and dragon dance performances at shopping malls and homes!

INTERNATIONAL DOCUMENTARY FILM FESTIVAL

ZAGREB, CROATIA

FEBRUARY 26 - MARCH 5, 2017

Venue: Various cinemas

Website: <http://zagrebdox.net/en/2017/home>

ZagrebDox is an international documentary film festival established in 2005 and held annually in Zagreb, Croatia. It is the biggest festival of its kind in South East Europe and its goals are to showcase documentary films from the region as well as to provide a meeting place for authors from all over the world, to offer quality documentary features to local audiences and to help promote documentary film as one of the basic film genres. Apart from screenings, the festival usually organizes workshops, presentations and pitching forums designed to help aspiring film authors in developing their projects. In addition to the official competition program (which is divided into a regional and an international category), the festival often features retrospectives of well-known authors and various national cinemas.
