Kelantan Menteri Besar Nik Aziz Nik Mat admitted that he had met secretly with Premier Najib Razak last year, but refused to comment further.

"It is a closed meeting, so I can't reveal to the public (what it is about). That is against the rules," said the PAS spiritual advisor on online portal HarakahDaily today.

The PAS leader (left) reportedly met with Najib on Dec 25 last year, fueling rumours of a resurrection of the PAS-Umno unity government talks that some say is favoured by certain factions in Umno and the Islamic party.

"Of course there are certain things that we talk about, one cannot meet with the PM just for small talk," added the MB when asked, after officiating the Wira Negara campaign in Kampung Cherang near Kota Baru this afternoon, what transpired with Najib,

Nik Aziz also refused to comment whether the meeting touched on the sensitive subject of the Malay royalty.

"I can't say anything because it is a closed meeting," he reiterated.

Meanwhile, Nik Aziz's press secretary Ahmad Fadhlu Shaari when contacted, said that further explanation on the matter will be forthcoming soon.

"He (Nik Aziz), will give a statement (on the meeting) within the next 24 hours," he said.

As for now, Ahmad Fadhlu said, he has not received any instructions from the Kelantan MB.
