In conjunction with PerakFM's second anniversary, a special treat is in store for its listeners and fans of the station's 'Deme Tanya Pak Ngah Jawab' slot, as they will have the chance to speak with Perak Menteri Besar Dr Zambry Abdul Kadir on March 1.

The special one-hour show to start at 9am will be aired live from the Dataran Majlis Bandaraya Ipoh (MBI).

State information chief Hamdi Abu Bakar said the slot will be conducted by Dr Zambry who will act as Pak Ngah and entertain calls and complaints from the public.

The popular show, conducted by Hamdi every Sunday for the past two years, is a question-and-answer programme which gives way to the public to voice out their problems with the state government and agencies which will try to be resolved by Pak Ngah.

Speaking to reporters here today, Hamdi said various government departments and agencies including the Land and District Office, Municipal and District Council, Social Welfare Department, Drainage and Irrigation Department, Health Department and Tenaga Nasional Berhad, will set up booths at the square until 1pm on the same day.

He added that the Road Transport Department, Royal Malaysia Police and the Ipoh Municipal Council will also set up payment counters there which offers discounts to payers.
