The Prime Minister's wife Rosmah Mansor today received the Datuk Amar Bintang Kenyalang award, which carries the title "Datuk Amar" from the Yang Dipertua Negeri Sarawak, Abang Muhammad Salahuddin Abang Barieng.

She received the award in a special investiture at Astana in Petra Jaya.

Rosmah (left) is the only recipient of the award, conferred in conjunction with the Yang Dipertua Negeri's 89th birthday on Oct 16 last year.

Prime Minister Najib Tun Razak, Chief Minister Abdul Taib Mahmud, State Assembly Speaker Mohamad Asfia Awang Nassar and Deputy Chief Minister Alfred Jabu were among those present at the investiture.

Rosmah is in Sarawak to accompany Najib in his two-day visit to the state which began yesterday.
