Amidst reports of a troubled Sarawak Pakatan Rakyat, DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng maintains that Sarawak National Party (Snap) is on the same page as the rest of the coalition.

With the dissolution of the state assembly today and impending polls, Lim (right) said that Snap's political struggles are still very similar to Pakatan's.

"DAP wants to fight in the state elections with PAS, PKR and Snap.

"We don't believe in not cooperating with these parties and all, including Snap, believe in reducing BN's two-thirds majority.

"I'm sure this opinion is shared by all," he said in a press conference at the party headquarters in Kuala Lumpur this afternoon.
