

Nervous BN tries PAS-bashing

The rakyat from across the entire coalition camp of DAP, PKR and PAS have signed-off the recent PAS General Assembly as a huge success.

They have sung credos of praise and are now pinning their hopes high on a greater future with PAS championing a welfare state - a move that is not only fundamentally consistent with true Islam but also on course with the road map of the 'Orange Book'.

But the BN and especially Umno insiders are crying loud and foul. And looks like they are not done with their crying and screaming really.

The most recent remarks by the Dr M clearly captures the hurt and bewildered sentiments of the BN die-hards. They wanted to see PAS cornered in a dead-end.

But BN forgot - Man proposes but God disposes!

The rakyat are no fools. Yes BN can fool them some of the time but cannot keep fooling the citizens all the time. They have all heard and read the tuan guru president of PAS keynote speech. So do not try to hog-wash what PAS still stands up for.

In the first place, by BN claiming though its blinded Malays dailies that PAS has given up its Islamic principles is utter rubbish.

In fact such accusations even hinges on sin.

PAS is taking the welfare state pathway in order to fulfill its very founding Islamic principles that are anchored solidly in the Holy Quran.

It wants to carry out its duties as a Islamic party - the duty of the leaders to ensure that the citizens are not exploited and denied of their fundamental right to a decent and God-loving life on earth and to ensure that leaders do not exploit the wealth of the nation bestowed by The Most Merciful, for their own selfish interest.

Got it you BN goons - including the self-proclaimed greatest, all-knowing Dr M.

Why is this so difficult to comprehend for anyone who claims always to know what is best for everyone? In the first place have you really read the keynote speech by the president of PAS?

So stop all your mud-slinging because it only makes us all sick. In fact the Dr M should be ashamed that even a non-Muslim has now to call upon him to repent.

BN had tried in vain and in such un-Islamic and dubious ways and means to kill off PAS in the past.

But because the leaders and followers stood virtuous before The Most Merciful and held steadfast to the teachings as enshrined in the Holy Quran, PAS has stayed its course.

Today, through sheer prayer, faith, honor, commitment and a blessed leadership, PAS has transformed to a new quantum that brings greater hope and promise to not only Muslims but for all non-Muslims too.

So is what PAS is doing unislamic Mr Former Prime Minister? Or is looting and plundering and ridiculing and insulting human kind with sex-plots and sex-ploits more islamic?

Please, as Mr Karpal Singh politely rebutted: search your soul, pray and repent while The Most Merciful keeps extending your lifeline. Otherwise be prepared for the worst.

There is nothing we can do for you. We have more important business for 28 million people and another 30 million more who are yet to be born.
