PAS deputy president, Mahfuz Omar and the member of parliament for Baling, Taib Azamudden Md Taib have been dropped from their positions as Kedah PAS deputy commissioners II and III for the term 2011/2013.

The decision to drop them was made at the special meeting of the PAS state liaison body at the Kedah PAS Complex at Batu 9, Kota Sarang Semut, near Alor Setar last night.

The menteri besar who is also Kedah PAS commissioner, Azizan Abdul Razak said they were replaced by the state exco for health, Dr Ismail Salleh and the former state assemblyperson for Belantek, Md Isa Shafie.

The state exco for housing and local government, Phahrolrazi Zawawi was retained as deputy commissioner I while the posts of secretary, treasurer, information chief and state director of election had also been filled with new appointees.

The special officer (Information) to the menteri besar, Musoddak Ahmad, was appointed secretary, state exco for agriculture Amiruddin Hamzah (treasurer), and former Kedah PAS secretary, Senator Yusuf Husain (state director of election).

Musoddak took over the post of state PAS secretary from Senator Yusuf who had been appointed Kedah PAS director of elections while Amiruddin replaced state exco for religion and education, Taulan Mat Rasul.

According to Azizan, the post of information chief, which was previously held by Amiruddin was handed over to his political secretary, Mohamad Sanusi Md Nor while the post of assistant secretary went to a committee member of the Kedah PAS Youth movement, Aizat Zakaria.
