Prime Minister Najib Razak tonight checked into Hospital Kuala Lumpur (HKL) for a minor surgery on his left knee tomorrow.

Najib who was accompanied by his wife Rosmah Mansor and children Nooryana Najwa and Norashman Razak arrived at HKL Royal Ward at 10pm.

He said the surgery will not take long to heal and that he is expected to start work three days later.

Reporters in Kedah were told on Thursday about the injury suffered by Najib when taking a penalty kick in a futsal game during Youth Day celebration in May.

Najib last injured himself while playing in the last match for football great the late Mokhtar Dahari.

He was then the Youth and Sports Minister (Aug 1986-Oct 1990).
