

MyKad scam: PAS corners bus loads of 'foreigners'
Malaysiakini.com
October 12, 2011
By Nigel Aw

It was a cat-and-mouse game for PAS at a village in Bangi today as party members, along with local villagers on motorcycles, tried to corner the leader of an alleged operation to grant citizenship to some 240 foreigners who are already permanent residents.

NONEPAS Youth treasurer Mohd Adram Musa said the alleged foreigners were being kept inside a resort near Kampung Bukit Dugang.

The gates to the resort have been locked to keep all outsiders away after the owners were said to have been "spooked" by questions from curious residents in the area.

"This modus operandi, I suspect, is an attempt to register foreigners as voters. This is the proof that we have," Adram told reporters outside the gates of the resort this afternoon.

He said a few PAS members entered the resort at 11am and found people who looked like foreigners, most of whom, seen from not too far a distance, resembled Indonesians and Bangladeshis.

When the party members questioned a person, believed to be in charge of the group of suspicious individuals, the reply was that the visitors were attending a course.

"If it is a course, then why do they keep avoiding us? At noon, some village leaders wanted to go in and interview the 'visitors', but he was not allowed to go in," Adram said.

NONE Today's episode came to light, he said, after he received information that six buses from Johor were ferrying foreigners to Putrajaya for a specific reason.

"True enough, when I arrived in Putrajaya at 7.30am, I found there were six buses at a mosque there. But the buses suddenly disappeared and then we got information that the passengers came here, to this resort.

"Why are they brought here? Why to Putrajaya? Is this a malicious effort to topple the Selangor government?"

Tip off from bus driver

PAS central committee members Mazlan Aliman said, a bus driver had tipped off the party after believing that he was deceived into ferrying alleged foreigners to Putrajaya.

"I was informed by the driver that this was the 10th trip. Each of the trips involved six to 10 busloads of foreigners. As I understand, this activity has been going on for a long time, supposedly under the name of 'naturalisation'.

NONE "What shocked him (the bus driver) was that in Putrajaya, they were approached by a group claiming to be National Registration Department (NRD) officers. I have come to understand that some of the NRD officers had escorted the foreigners out of the resort," Mazlan (left) said.

He said the bus driver had also seen documents, believed to be for citizenship applications, with the NRD officers, who were led by a runner driving a black Mitsubishi Pajero.

However, despite their efforts to block the "runner", the vehicle disappeared from the resort compound at about 2.30pm.

Mazlan said the six buses left Kulai at midnight and stopped at the Pagoh rest area at 2am. They arrived at Putrajaya at 7.30am and the passengers were then taken to Kampung Bukit Dugang.

He said the buses have since left the area, on the advice of police officers, but that the foreigners were still hiding in the resort.

The local villagers will continue to keep watch on the resort, Mazlan said, adding that PAS would also raise this matter in Parliament tomorrow.

Copyright © 1999-2007 Mkini Dotcom Sdn. Bhd
<http://www.malaysiakini.com/news/178439>