COMMENT Now it appears that it is PAS' turn at airing dishevelment in its ranks, with secretary-general Mustafa Ali taking aim at recalcitrants, Hasan Ali and Nasharudin Mat Isa, for supposedly sowing dissension among colleagues over the party's policies and actions.

The week before, it was the DAP's turn to air dirty linen, but the internal ructions were speedily quelled by a three-man committee which within a day of its empanelment announced to considerable relief that the rift between chairman Karpal Singh and Penang Deputy Chief Minister II P Ramasamy is mended...
