The 'Datuk T' trio, who had screened a sex video claiming to be that of PKR de facto leader Anwar Ibrahim, today challenged Anwar to prove them wrong or face another "more shocking" video expose.

datuk t charged 240611 shuib lazimIn a front page report on Malay language daily Utusan Malaysia, one of the trio, former Perkasa treasurer Shuib Lazim (right), said the new sex video was recorded on Jan 12 and 13 in Thailand.

"I have seen the video passed to me by Eskay. I believe Eskay is ready to make an expose of the video in court if Anwar sues us," he said, referring to another Datuk T member, Shazryl Ekay Abdullah.

"Look at (Anwar's) passport to check where he was. Or ask his wife Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail," he said.

Shuib added that Anwar should sue the trio, including former Malacca menteri besar Abdul Rahim Thamby Chik, if any international forensic analyst can prove that Anwar was not in the first sex video exposed last March.

The video, first screened to journalists, showed a man resembling Anwar fornicating with a woman.

Anwar lodged a police report denying that the man in the video was him, while the Datuk T trio were charged with screening pornography in public.

'No point debating with Anwar'

Meanwhile, former prime minister Dr Mahathir Mohamad said that Prime Minister Najib Abdul Razak need not entertain Anwar's challenge for a debate on the country's policies.

azlanMahathir was reported by Malay language dailies Sinar Harian and Berita Harian as saying that Anwar only wants to have a debate to "show that he is bengis (fierce)".

"What's the point of debating when everyone knows his stand, and the debate won't change this. It's a different case if Anwar shares the government's opinion on matters raised," he said.
