Prime Minister Najib Abdul Razak said that he has no inkling about a new sex video claimed to involve PKR de facto leader Anwar Ibrahim.

NONE Asked about the claim made by the Datuk T trio at a late press conference today, Najib responded by passing the ball back to the trio who last year exposed a sex video said to be of Anwar.

"I don't know, you have to ask them, don't ask me," he said.

He also said that he has not watched the said video.

"I don't know. I have no knowledge on this... talking about videos this late at night," he said, laughing heartily.

Other members of the Umno supreme council, including deputy president Muhyiddin Yassin, also guffawed with Najib.

The issue involving the said video was brought up by one of the Datuk T trio, Shuib Lazim, today, who claimed the new video was "more shocking" than the one which was exposed earlier.

Umno-owned daily Utusan Malaysia today front-paged a report quoting a member of the Datuk T trio, Shuib Lazim, who claimed that they have a video "more shocking" than the one screened last March.

Shuib claims to have watched new video

The former Perkasa treasurer claims the new video was passed to him by another Datuk T member, Shazryl Eskay Abdullah, and was recorded on Jan 12 and 13, 2011 in Thailand.

datuk t charged 240611 shuib lazim Shuib (right), who said he has watched the new video, said the Datuk T are willing to screen the video in court if Anwar ever sues them.

He said the PKR de facto leader should sue the Datuk T, consisting also of former Malacca chief minister Rahim Thamby Chik, if an international forensic analyst finds that the man in the first video is not Anwar.

The opposition leader has lodged a police report to deny that he is the man recorded on video, while the Datuk T pleaded guilty to a charge of screening pornography in public.

Police are presently investigating Anwar for allegedly producing false information in his police report.
