YOURSAY 'I've yet to hear you comment on the corruption that has infested Umno and the racism eating up the party like cancer.'

Hasan Ali slams PAS collaboration with DAP, PKR your sayMuak: Former Selangor PAS commissioner Hasan Ali, if you stand for Islam, how come I've yet to hear you comment on the corruption that has infested Umno-BN and the racism that is eating up the party like cancer.

Is corruption permissible in Islam? Is racism allowed in Islam? Does the beautiful religion condone lies to the rakyat? Does Islam allow its followers to malign other races for political gains?

How come I've not heard you say anything about Umno-BN stealing from the rakyat? How come I've not heard you say anything about the government of the day robbing the rakyat blind? How come I've not heard you say anything about putting those corrupt Umno-BN crooks in jail?

How come I've not heard you say anything about the need for Shahrizat Abdul Jalil to step down after her shameless family scandal? Go look yourself in the mirror and see if Allah is proud of you.

Sarajun Hoda: I am a Muslim. First, the struggle for a Islamic state is not practical in multiracial Malaysia. Anyway, this is a secular country. Islam is only its official religion; this is not an Islamic state.

Second, you need a welfare state to provide a safety net for the 80 percent of population who are in the middle-income group down to the poverty-stricken.

Thirdly, PAS has gained its respect among non-Muslims for dropping its Islamic state platform.

Fourthly, PAS, with its Pakatan Rakyat partners, must take Putrajaya to save Malaysia.

The NFC (National Feedlot Corporation) scandal, PKFZ (Port Klang Free Zone), toll highways, excessive payment to IPPs (independent power producers), hospital failures and many other acute financial hemorrhages, more than prove the point.

But Hasan does not have the intelligence of understanding of what is the greater good for Malaysians.

Fifth, how can DAP be an enemy of Islam when it is also fighting for the rights of the Muslims as well?

Sixth, PAS is not eating its words, it has grown more intelligent.

Finally, in which country in the world has an Islamic state proven practical and successful?

Onyourtoes: Hasan, stop indulging in self-importance. No one is interested whether or not you appeal your dismissal.

I want you to give names of foreign Christian missionaries who disguised as Muslims in order to influence and convert them into Christianity.

I want you to give names of those Muslims who have become apostates. If you can't, you are a depraved liar, a troublemaker, an imposter and a fake.

Swkdayaks: The very fact that Hasan Ali is constantly being given extraordinary media coverage on TV3, Utusan Malaysia, etc, clearly shows his sponsorship by Umno.

His constant attacks against PAS, Opposition Leader Anwar Ibrahim, PKR, DAP and the Christians, also show he is linked to Umno.

The media should also ask Hasan Ali about his stand on the current scandal involving the National Feedlot Centre. His stand on this scandal would also reveal his link to Umno.

Anonymous_3e06: Hasan, you are an empty gong, as we say in the Christian scripture - a religion that you hate.

And yet, you tell everyone you love Islam. You only love power. That's what the people do not want to give you.

Khalid: Hasan changed after I didn't back him for MB

Ferdtan: I hope some Muslims can explain the divorce through 'talak'. From my understanding, if a person 'talak tiga kali' from his wife, then he cannot remarried his wife again.

If that is the case, Hasan Ali certainly 'talak tiga kali' with his party. He is obviously not going back to his party ever.

Annoyed Malaysian: Hasan is a disgruntled and insincere person. He pretends to fight for Islam and the Malay rulers, who are very well-protected and never under threat.

Hasan does not bother about the physically and mentally challenged persons who need the most pity.

Such people are faithless and misguided in their religion otherwise they would have fought fight tooth and nail against corruption and abuse of power which are the enemies of the poor and downtrodden.

Hasan and Perkasa chief Ibrahim Ali only want position and power and for this they are willing to spew lies, distortion and all kinds of mindless accusations.

His number on DAP collaborating with Singapore to take over the country is the mother of all lies.

Hang Tuah PJ: I have stopped penning comments on Hasan Ali. Don't want to waste my time on this loser.
